3.3 Membership rights

A. Full members have the following rights:

- Right to vote: each full member shall be entitled to one voting right. However, when several NYCs come from the same State, they will only have one vote, to be divided according to what is stated in the Rules of Procedure;

- Right to be present and speak at the General Assembly and Council of Members;

The Secretary-General shall inform the Board, who may refer the matter to the General Assembly or Council of Members.

The members have the responsibility to pay the annual membership fee before the end of the year concerned.

The members have the responsibility to participate regularly in the meetings of the Forum, its bodies or working structures.

The members have the responsibility to answer in due time to requests of information connected with the purpose of the Forum.

3.5 Membership applications

3.5.1 All membership applications (A, B or C) must be sent by registered mail to the registered office of the Forum, to the attention of the Secretary-General. The membership application must be motivated and must contain all elements allowing the appraisal of whether the above-mentioned criteria are fulfilled.

Non-compliance with the above-mentioned conditions (3.5.1) shall render the application null and void. Therefore, all membership applications which do not respect all of those conditions shall be considered null and void and shall not be taken into consideration.

3.5.2 The completed membership application is communicated without undue delay and in any case not later than 30 days after reception to the Consultative Body on Membership Applications (CBMA), which must address a report to the Board with regard to the membership application. This report must be justified with regard to the above-mentioned criteria (3.1 and 3.2).

3.5.3 After the report established by the Consultative Body on Membership Applications is available to the Board, the Board shall transfer the membership application together with its recommendation to the General Assembly.

3.5.4 The membership application shall be put on the agenda of the General Assembly.

3.5.5 The General Assembly shall decide on the admission of a member by a two-thirds majority of votes cast, not counting abstentions.

3.5.6 In case of a favourable vote by the General Assembly, the status of member shall be acquired on the day following the closing of the General Assembly.
3.5.7 In case of a negative vote by the General Assembly, a new membership application shall only be taken into consideration after a period of two years has elapsed.

3.5.9 If an applicant organisation for full membership does not fulfil the specific criteria for full membership (stated in the CBMA motivated report) it automatically becomes an observer member and can apply for candidate after one year.

3.6 Membership review, suspension of rights and end of membership

3.6.1 In principle, members acquire their status for an unlimited period of time. However, after expiration of four years as a candidate member, this member becomes automatically an observer member. This change will be in effect and a membership review is automatically initiated by the CBMA on the 1st of January following the end of the fourth year as a candidate member. In this case, the application to become a candidate member again will not be taken into consideration before a period of three years has elapsed. An exception shall be made where the organisation has submitted a completed application for full membership within the four years deadline and this is still under analysis by the CBMA. In this case, the deadline for downgrading membership will only come into effect at the following Council of Members or General Assembly where the question of their membership is presented to the Member Organisations.

3.6.2 Each member which has not paid its fees before the end of the concerned year shall automatically lose its voting right as of the 1st of January of the following year. This right can be granted back by decision of the Council of Members if the fees have been paid before the meeting of the Council of Members. If non-payment of the fees lasts longer than one year, the status of member shall be reviewed by the Board, according to the procedure described hereunder.

3.6.3 Whenever one of the members does not fulfil the criteria for its level of membership, the termination of its membership or the review of its status could be decided by the General Assembly by a two thirds majority of votes cast, not counting abstentions, according to the following procedure:

- The demand for review of membership must be introduced with an appropriate justification letter signed by at least ten full members or the Board, to the Secretary-General. Within 30 days of the reception of the demand, the Secretary-General shall transfer the demand to the CBMA and to the concerned member.
- Within one month of the reception of the demand, the member shall be able to address to the CBMA all the information it considers useful to be taken into account by the CBMA.
- The CBMA must address a justified report to the Board with regard to the membership review.
- After the report established by the Consultative Body on Membership Applications is available to the Board, the Board shall transfer the membership application together with its recommendation to the General Assembly.

3.6.4 When a member does not respect its obligations, the Board can, on its own initiative or after a demand of at least ten full members, decide to withdraw all or part of its rights as a member according to the following procedure:

- The suspension or withdrawal shall be put on the agenda of the Board and the concerned member shall be informed of the objections which are made against it.
- The member shall be invited to regularise its situation or to communicate to the Board, in a written statement and within one month as of the reception of the demand, all the information it considers useful to be taken into account by the Board.
- The Board can decide by a justified decision to deprive the member of one or more of its rights until that member has regularised its situation.
- After a four-year suspension of its rights, the Board will have to propose the end of membership of the member at the next General Assembly.

3.6.5 All decisions with regard to a suspension of rights, a revision of status or an end of membership of a member shall take effect immediately.

3.6.6 A member which is wound up, put in liquidation or dissolved shall be considered as resigning and shall automatically lose its status of member.

3.6.7 Each member is free to resign from the Forum. The resignation shall be effective as of the eighth day following the reception of a registered letter in which the member informs the Forum of its intention to resign.
