

Pool of Trainers

2021-2022

	biography	training areas	working languages
 Cora Stalsh - nominating organisation: 	Cora has been working as an intercultural trainer since her volunteer year in India 2014. Her trainings focus on empowering (young) people and sensitizing them to current developments in society. In addition, Cora has hands-on work and training experience in advocacy, campaign management, and strategic planning with various stakeholders. As a founder and shareholder, Cora brings experience in organizational and project management. Special focus is placed on the topics of feminism, democratization, migration, inclusion and structural discrimination based on non-formal education. The quality of her training also benefits from her studies: a mix of administration, economics and social sciences.	Advocacy, Campaign management &amp; Lobbying, Democracy and European Citizenship, Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, Fundraising, Intercultural learning, Non-Formal Education, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Youth Participation, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach), Methodology training for trainers &amp; facilitators, Digital workshop skills (methodology and didactics) and experience with hybrid and blended learning, Methodological knowledge and skills to create courses on an eLearning platform, Special focus on feminism, intersectionality, and structural discrimination (in the purpose of empowerment, education and awareness), Social Entrepreneurship	English German
 Alonso Escamilla - nominating organisation: 	Alonso is Member of the Pool of Trainers of the Spanish Youth Council and the Extremadura Youth Council. At the same time, he has been a trainer, among others, for the Council of Europe, European Commission, United Nations Development Programme, United Nations Population Fund and EU-LAC Foundation. Finally, he is Member of the Pool of European Youth Researchers (PEYR) of the EU-CoE Youth Partnership.	Advocacy, Campaign management &amp; Lobbying, Democracy and European Citizenship, Digital Rights &amp; Privacy, Employment, European Institutions, Intercultural learning, Project Management, Strategic Planning, Sustainable Development, Transitions (internships, apprenticeships and the Youth Guarantee), Youth Dialogue, Youth Participation, Youth Peace and Security, Youth structures and representation, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach), Gender perspective, Information disorder, Human trafficking
 Tilen Lah - nominating organisation: 	Tilen has been for the last ten years as a trainer and author most active in the fields of leadership/management, democracy, marketing and teamwork. He is passionate about motivation through gamification and optimisation of processes and communications. He was introduced to non-formal education and youth work some twenty years ago and helped many individuals and organisations one step further on their way to reach their potential since. He likes to pull like minded people together and organise events like TEDx talks, conferences or just group meetings with people who share similar interests. A pragmatic dreamer who wants to change the world one "impossible" step at the time.	Democracy and European Citizenship, Employment, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Strategic Planning, Youth Dialogue, Youth Participation, Youth structures and representation, Communications (marketing/PR), Digital, Developing of concepts/methods/processes
 Maryam Majidova - nominating organisation: 	Maryam is a youth worker, trainer, mentor and facilitator with 10 years experience. She has been active in several youth organisations on local and international levels such as AIESEC, National Youth Council of Azerbaijan (NAYORA), ECYC since 2011. Currently, she is working on her own initiative - Gender HUB Azerbaijan which aims to support victims of domestic violence in Azerbaijan and prevent gender-based hate speech and crime. Moreover, she is involved as a consultant within #EU4GenderEquality and #EU4Youth projects within EaP Integration process. Maryam is a member of SALTO TOY, junior trainer of the Youth Department of the Council of Europe PoT, expert of United Nations Population Fund and member of NAYORA's PoT. Maryam is a gender equality activist who fights to be part of an equitable society which lives no one behind.	Advocacy, Campaign management &amp; Lobbying, Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, Intercultural learning, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Social Rights, Sustainable Development, Youth Dialogue, Youth Participation, Youth Peace and Security, Youth structures and representation, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach), Prevention of violent radicalization and extremism among youth, Addressing gender stereotypes and gender-based violence, Community Building and Leadership, Emotional Intelligence, Social Entrepreneurship, Design thinking and creative problem solving	English Russian Turkish Azerbaijani
 Sara Pöll Finnbogadóttir - nominating organisation: 	Sara Pöll is a dedicated student activist and a student of political science. Sara has been delivering trainings and facilitating on a local, national and international level since 2015, mainly working on capacity building activities with local student unions, OBESSU and LUF (NYC of Iceland). Sara is passionate about organisational development, advocacy, human rights, democracy and inclusion. She also enjoys graphic facilitation and loves to incorporate it into her activities! Sara is a member of the PoT of both OBESSU and LUF. Since early 2020, Sara has been combining her education and passion for non-formal education by developing a toolkit for young people in Iceland to become active citizens and participants in democratic processes.	Advocacy, Campaign management &amp; Lobbying, Democracy and European Citizenship, Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Social Rights, Strategic Planning, Youth Participation, Youth structures and representation, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach), Graphic facilitation	English Icelandic
 Joanna Stompel - nominating organisation: 	Joanna is a trainer and a coach with a background in psychology. She has rich experience in non-formal education, youth work, volunteering, entrepreneurship and employability, soft and digital skills. She is a member of the Trainer's Pool of Polish National Agency of European Solidarity Corps and Erasmus+ Programme. On a daily basis, she works at the Career Office of University of Lodz, Poland, supporting students and graduates on their professional path. She is a volunteer in The Polish Scouting and Guiding Association.	Digital Rights &amp; Privacy, Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, Employment, Intercultural learning, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Transitions (internships, apprenticeships and the Youth Guarantee), Youth Participation, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach), Digital Skills, Career Coaching, Design Thinking, Entrepreneurship	English Polish
 Martina Tiwald - nominating organisation: 	Tini Tiwald is working as trainer, moderator and facilitator since 2015. From 2017 to 2019 she's been president of the Austrian National Youth Council, speaking in behalf of the Austrian youth about non-formal education, citizenship education, digital affairs, participation, girls/women, youth dialogue and EU. She is studying Theology and Political Science in Vienna.	Advocacy, Campaign management &amp; Lobbying, Democracy and European Citizenship, Digital Rights &amp; Privacy, Youth Participation, Youth structures and representation, Teambuilding and facilitating team processes, Train the Trainer courses
 Álvaro González Pérez - nominating organisation: 	Álvaro is a trainer, project manager and activist who has been involved in European youth civil society for the past six years. He served as the Vice-President of AEGEE, where he coordinated its advocacy strategy, and has worked as trainer (in both online and physical events) and consultant with various national and international youth-led NGOs on advocacy, climate change, project management or youth participation, which provides him with an in-depth knowledge of the youth field in Europe. Álvaro works for the Asia-Europe Foundation managing projects on youth leadership, inclusion and sustainable development, he currently serves as board member of Generation Climate Europe and is part of the Expert Group on Youth Rights of the European Youth Forum.	Advocacy, Campaign management &amp; Lobbying, Climate change, Democracy and European Citizenship, Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, Institutional Fundraising, European Institutions, Intercultural learning, Project Management, Strategic Planning, Sustainable Development, Youth Participation, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach)	Basque English German Italian Spanish
 Peter Huray - nominating organisation: 	Peter is a passionate trainer &amp; facilitator, who is passionate about youth work and non-formal education. He believes in the uniqueness of each human and the potential of one's own learning. He is a trainer of Slovak National Agency, cooperates with SALTO resource centres on Quality projects and with various youth stakeholders in Slovakia. He is engaged in topics of communication and trust building and likes to use the outdoor environment for his trainings.	Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, Employment, Intercultural learning, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Strategic Planning, Sustainable Development, Youth Participation, Youth empowerment (competences development), Learning processes (Design and psychology of various learning approaches), Youth inclusive leadership through outdoor education
 Marinela Samirnjaki - nominating organisation: 	Marinela has been a trainer, facilitator and author for a decade and is working mostly in the field of non-formal education and capacity building. She is daily working on digital transformation and online youth work/youth training, volunteering and solidarity, peace-building, project and organisational management, youth leadership and human rights for different networks, institutions and organisations. She strongly believes in the power of non-formal education, human rights and a good piece of cake.	Digital Rights &amp; Privacy, Fundraising, Intercultural learning, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Strategic Planning, Youth Participation, Youth Peace and Security, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach), Online facilitation and digital transformation, Youth Work, Non-Formal Education	English Serbian Bosnian Montenegrin
 Jorge Sánchez Hernández - nominating organisation: 	Jorge's background is strong in project management, sustainable development and climate change. He has worked as SDGs Programme Manager at the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS) and started his non-formal education career in AEGEE back in 2014. He is passionate about educating about the climate crisis. He has lead European and global educational projects and has extensive (both hands-on and training) experience in training and volunteer management as well as moderation of panels with high profiles. He runs a remote team building startup from Kyrgyzstan, where he currently resides, so he is available for online projects only.	Climate change, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Strategic Planning, Sustainable Development, Youth Participation, Team Building, Entrepreneurship &amp; Startups	Spanish English
 Marija Pantelic - nominating organisation: 	Marija has been active in the youth field as a trainer and facilitator since the year 2010, and she had opportunity to work with various stakeholders on local, national and international level. Main topics that she is working on are non-formal education, volunteering, communication, youth participation and advocacy. Since the year 2016, she is combining her work as trainer with the current job in digital marketing to help various NGOs to work on their better visibility.	Advocacy, Campaign management &amp; Lobbying, Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, Employment, Intercultural learning, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Strategic Planning, Youth Dialogue, Youth Participation, Youth structures and representation, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach), Communication - offline and digital (strategies, content creation, internal, external), EU Youth Dialogue	English Serbian Spanish
 Matej Manevski	Matej worked as a youth since 2011, and within this period worked with various stakeholders in the youth field. He has extant experience in human rights education, advocacy, youth work and youth policy. He has studied organisational management and entrepreneurship, which also gives him a lot of knowledge on the topics of employment, entrepreneurship, organisational and project management.	Advocacy, Campaign management &amp; Lobbying, Democracy and European Citizenship, Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, European Institutions, Fundraising, Intercultural learning, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Social Rights, Strategic Planning, Youth Dialogue, Youth Participation, Youth structures and representation, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach)
 Milosh Rostovski - nominating organisation: 	Milosh has been involved as a facilitator/trainer in non-formal education for more than 6 years internationally and more than 8 years locally (Kumanovo, North Macedonia). Has been already a member in the POT of the European Youth Forum in the previous mandate and has mostly been involved in events tackling: online learning, social media, political participation, education. He is passionate about blended (online and offline) learning approaches and usage of digital tools in facilitation and education in general. At the moment Milosh is the Secretary General of YEF Europe and this offers him space to receive everyday experience from work in a political youth organisation.	Advocacy, Campaign management &amp; Lobbying, Democracy and European Citizenship, Digital Rights &amp; Privacy, European Institutions, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Strategic Planning, Youth Dialogue, Youth Participation, Youth structures and representation	English Macedonian Bulgarian Spanish
 Dragana Jovanovska - nominating organisation: 		Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, Fundraising, Intercultural learning, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Youth Participation, Youth Peace and Security, Youth structures and representation, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach), Human rights education, Youth work, NFE, Prevention of radicalization and violent extremism
 Hannah Graham - nominating organisation: 	Hannah Graham is a freelance trainer and activist with 10 years experience in campaigning, policy and engagement roles that work to empower young people and advocate for change. Formerly Global Youth Lead at The Food Foundation, working alongside premier-ship footballer Marcus Rashford for children's free school meals in the UK, and Advocacy Manager at World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS), and Policy &amp; Youth Engagement Manager at UK Youth. Her passion is the design and facilitation of training regarding advocacy, youth participation, equality, diversity and inclusion. Hannah is also a committed green campaigner, young politician and climate activist.	Advocacy, Campaign management &amp; Lobbying, Democracy and European Citizenship, Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, Project Management, Youth Participation, Engagement, Youth structures and representation, Equality &amp; Diversity, Political Strategy, Democratic Engagement	English
 Ines Moreira - nominating organisation: 	Inês is an enthusiastic trainer with a 10-year history working and volunteering for international youth organisations and a passion for inclusive education. She is a versatile youth worker who believes in values-based leadership and using her knowledge in non-formal education and community building to develop and empower underrepresented individuals and communities.	Democracy and European Citizenship, Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, European Institutions, Intercultural learning, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Social Rights, Strategic Planning, Youth Participation, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach), Training of trainers/facilitators, Cultural management, Student mobility
 Clara Drammeh - nominating organisation: 	As a dedicated scout and youth advocate, Clara is experienced with facilitation in civil society contexts and non-formal education. For some time now, she has been working as a freelance trainer and facilitator. Being a young black woman, she advocates for more diversity on stages, a culturally sensitive approach and inclusive language, as well as interactive, participatory events and trainings both face-to-face and online. Through her international relations studies and her work as a youth policy officer, she strives to help build bridges between young people and political decision-makers. In addition, as a former project coordinator, she is experienced in supporting strategy and team processes and is skilled in project management methods.	Advocacy, Campaign management &amp; Lobbying, Democracy and European Citizenship, Inclusion and developing inclusive processes, Anti-Discrimination, Empowerment, Diversity &amp; Equality, Intercultural learning, Organisational Development &amp; Management, Project Management, Strategic Planning, Team Building, Youth Dialogue, EU Youth Dialogue/EU Youth Goals, Youth Participation, Youth Rights (access to rights, equality, anti-discrimination, rights-based approach), Facilitation Training, Digital Tools and Collaboration, Digital and Hybrid Events, Blended Learning	English German